Some may ask, what is it about the qualities of John Batdorf that set him apart from other excellent singer-songwriters? It's his vulnerability, completely opening the door to his heart. John invites the listener into his soul and shares a couple of hours, open and trusting as he sings of transforming despair into hope, hate into love, and fear and ignorance into tolerance and acceptance. We share his understanding, his forgiveness, and are filled with compassion when the song is done. When you hear John sing for the first time, you'll understand why his music has meant so much to his fans that have now spanned nearly four decades.

Performances are held at the West Bethesda Presbyterian Church, 11954 Co. Rd. I, Montpelier, OH 43543. Check our website at <http://westbethesda.org/> or on Facebook under West-Bethesda-Folk-Music-Concerts. A $12 donation will be requested for the performer.
